

EHS Class of 1957 Website

About our Venture into Cyberspace . . .

At our 50th reunion, some classmates discussed a need for better ways to contact other classmates—we do seem to move around a bit—and decided that a Web site was the way to get us into 21st Century Communications. The site will serve as an information source and a communications clearinghouse for the Edmonds High School Class of 1957.

Plans for its use include

- posting information about upcoming events
- facilitating connections with former classmate friends
- reviewing past class-gatherings, including many photos of smiling '57 tigers!
- providing an opportunity for class members to share memories and/or reflect upon their high school experience.
- solicit suggestions for additions/improvements to the site

Web site Support . . .

The building and maintenance of our Web site—including domain registration and web hosting space—is being done through contracted providers. Your contributions will help pay for the initial site-creation costs and, hopefully, on-going Internet hosting expenses for the foreseeable future. This is our class Web site! Please become a part of our venture into Cyberspace by sending a donation (any size will help) whenever you can.

Many thanks to all donors, who will be listed on our Website.
